REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's arguments and amendments to the claims are persuasive to show that the non-volatile semiconductor device comprising at least a first channel with one charge density, a second adjacent channel region with a second charge density, a first gate formed above the first channel via a first gate insulator, a second gate formed above the second channel via a second gate insulator, such that in the writing operation electrons are injected into the second insulator, in the erasing operation holes are injected into the second insulator, and in the holding operation charges are held in the second insulator, is neither anticipated nor obvious over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
